

The Association of Professors of Dermatology
The Lowell Goldsmith Lecture

“Health Care in America:
Now and the Future”

William L. Roper, MD, MPH

Chicago

September 26, 2015

UNC
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Myths about American health care

- “The American health care system is the best in the world”

Myths about American health care

- “Everybody eventually gets the care they need”

Myths about American health care

- “Almost always, the quality of care people get is very good”

Myths about American health care

- “The cost of care in America is not really a problem”

Myths about American health care

- “If you like your care, nothing about it will change”

The future of American health care

- Cost constraint

The future of American health care

- Consolidation

The future of American health care

- “Capitation”

The future of American health care

- Population health

The future of American health care

- Value